JOHN HERBERT CLAIBORNE, M.D., Virginia's ordebrated physician, says: "I have been familiar whit the mage of the Blue Ridge Springs water for twenty years past, and have very often recommended it in my practice. For dyspepsia, especially when accompanied with acid indigestion, I know of no superior water, and as a corrigent and regulator of secretion it is beneficial in consupation which is the result of indigestion. I have known of some remarkable cures which have resulted from its use. The late Judge Joynes, of the Court of Appeals, used to say that he never feared to dine when he had access to it.
